In 58 years of journey, our Institution best known for its degree level education in Commerce discipline. With more than five decades long treasure hunt in the area of Commerce, this Institution introduced Arts Departments having been enriched in terms of capacity expansion, man-power development and quality improvement from the Academic Session 2005-2006.

The Institution at present offers three Honours courses viz. B.Com.(Hons) in Financial Accounting, B.A.(Hons) in Bengali & English, and General Courses: B. Com (Gen.) & B.A.(Gen) with Bengali, English, Hindi, Education, Political Science & History as General subjects.

We have a team of qualified and well experienced teachers. They work with a dedicated mind serving the cause of education. The college is fully equipped with a good library having e-resource facilities. The relationship between the members of teaching and non-teaching staff, students and guardians is cordial. We have built up a work-force which is certainly and essentially based on team- work where commitments and responsibilities are shared appropriately for a single cause of continuous advancement of learning. This is for the students who are the heart and soul of the institution and practically provide the reason for the institution's existence in proper sense of the term. Ample opportunities are provided for students to take part in both academic and co-curricular activities.

As Principal of the institution, I am confident of pursuing higher education through the college which continues its pursuit towards academic excellence all these years. I am also very much proud to announce that the college was accredited by the National Assessment & Accreditation Council (NAAC) and awarded Grade B status in November, 2011. The period of accreditation is valid for five years and the college is in the process of Re-accreditation. The IQAC has already started compilation of the documents for re-accreditation and the preparation of Self-Study Report (SSR). Further, it may be mentioned here that the Higher Education Department, Govt. of West Bengal visited our college under the scheme "Performance-Cum-Need based Incentive Scheme for Government aided Colleges (SAAC)" in the month of December 2011 for verification and validation of the statement submitted by the college and their assessment was found satisfactory.

The college library has a vast collection of books for curriculum-based text books, reference books and all the departments have well-stocked seminar library.

A Brief History of the College

Acharya Girish Chandra Bose, the eminent educationist and great social reformer was the founder of BANGABASI COLLEGE. He established the institutions- BANGABASI SCHOOL in 1885 and BANGABASI COLLEGE in 1887 with the sole objective of promoting education in Bengal during the Nineteenth Century Renaissance in India.

Acharya Girish Chandra Bose, MA, MRAC returned to Calcutta from London on the 14th July, 1884 after successful completion of his higher studies. The then Director of Public Instruction, Sir Alfred Croft offered him a prestigious higher post in the Education Department of British Govt. But he refused to accept it. He also did not hesitate to refuse the higher post offered by Nizam of Hyderabad. Instead, he devoted his entire life to the cause of extension and development of education of the people of the country.

After the independence of India in 1947, there was an influx of young talents from the then East Pakistan (now Bangladesh) and elsewhere in West Bengal and particularly in Calcutta. In order to accommodate them as well as to ease the tremendous pressure of admission to the Colleges, three new shifts like Morning, Evening and Commerce of Bangabasi College had to open from the Academic Session 1964-1965. Ultimately following the Phase Reduction Scheme of UGC, the three independent shifts were converted into three full-fledged colleges (1) Bangabasi Morning College (2) Bangabasi Evening College housed in the same complex of BANGABASI COLLEGE and (3) Bangabasi College of Commerce which was shifted in the premises of Bangabasi Collegiate School at 8/1 Santosh Mitra Square (St. James Square), Calcutta - 12. Thus, Bangabasi College of Commerce was established in 1964 and was affiliated under the University of Calcutta from the Academic Session 1964-65 as an Evening College. Prof. Prasanta Kumar Bose, worthy son of Acharya Girish Chandra Bose was the principal-in-Charge of the newly established Bangabasi College of Commerce from 4th October 1964. Affiliation for the Honours Course was accorded to this College by the University of Calcutta from the Academic Session 1970-71.

The College continued functioning as an Evening College in the said school building and was shifted to the present premises at 35, Scott Lane (presently known as Rajkumar Chakraborty Sarani), Calcutta-9 on 23rd September 1981 after being duly handed over the 3-storied building at that premises to the College authority by the Govt. of West Bengal.

Recently, a new 3-storied building has been constructed and very soon it would be used for Academic and Administration purpose of the college.

As a measure of further extension of education and with a view to provide wider scope to the students from all section of the society, it was converted into a full-fledged Co-Educational Day College w.e.f. the Academic Session 1982-83 in the same premises and continued to impart the teaching in B.Com (Hons.) and B.Com (Pass) courses under Calcutta University.

The Governing Body of the College decided to change the name of the college ie., Bangabasi College of Commerce in a G.B. Meeting held on 5th May, 2004 and remane it as “ACHARYA GIRISH CHANDRA BOSE COLLEGE” (AGC Bose College) as a deep mark of respect to Acharya Girish Chandra Bose, the great soul of Bengal. Thus, from the Academic session 2005-2006, Acharya Girish Chandra Bose College (formrly Bangabasi College of Commerce) offers the courses B. Com (Hons.), B.A.(Hons) in Bengali & English, B. Com. (Gen) and B.A. (Gen) for UG-level Education under Calcutta University.

Besides its academic programmes and excellent educational facilities, the Institution finds its path in the phrase “To Respect, Inquire and Serve the Nation” [PRANIPATENO, PRARIPRASNENO SEBAYA].

Acharya Girish Chandra Bose College (Formerly Bangabasi College of Commerce: ESTD. 1964) has completed the 50th year of its journey on 4th October, 2014.
